

Addicts Anonymous meets at Narco. The group was founded at Lexington by patients and used the Twelve Steps associated with Alcoholics Anonymous. By the time this photo was taken in 1950, Addicts Anonymous had spread from Lexington to fifty-five prisons and forty-eight hospitals.

