ATTENTION MEMBERS! YOU CAN HELP. Please submit input for a Daily Reference Book for Our Fellowship!

Dear Fellow Members*...

We are excited about a new literature project. A growing number of addicts throughout greater N.A. share a common dream of writing a "daily book" for N.A. hopefully entitled "Just for Today". This project will be a large one and we need to have as much worldwide participation as possible to truly reflect our Fellowship as a whole!

We plan to work closely with WLC in gathering and categorizing input, as well as helping to prepare the material for Fellowship distribution and approval. We have initiated this work and have volunteered to aid WLC as a clearing and checking point for the work on this project.

We are currently working on a method to divide the necessary work among as many different RSC Literature Sub-Committees as possible, who are able to participate in writing input and going over the input received. Our Region is tenatively planning a Literature Conference for late Summer of 1983 which will be dedicated to working on this project.

Please review the information below regarding graphics, format, etc. Any ideas or suggestions are welcome. We request as much involvement and communication from as many Regions, Areas, Groups and Members as possible. Thank you and hope to hear from you soon!
