Railroad

Trenton is on the main service line of AM-TRAK. The railroad station is located in the city five miles from the campus. Public transportation from the station to the college necessitates first taking a bus from the station to State and Broad Streets and there connecting with a Pennington Road bus to campus. Taxi service to the campus is also available.

Plane

The Mercer County Airport is located within two miles of the campus. Allegheny Airlines has several flights a day between Trenton, Philadelphia, PA, Newark, NJ, and Washington, DC. Taxi service is available at the airport.

Automobile

The College is most easily reached by automobile.

Trailblazers at key intersections near the college will help with directions.

From Newark and North Jersey:

Persons coming from North Jersey using the New Jersey Turnpike should exit at New Brunswick (Exit 9) and then follow Rt. 1 South.

*Leave Rt. 1 at I-295 to 95 and travel south (toward Pennsylvania) to the Federal City Road exit, Exit 71B. Continue on Federal City Road South until the stop sign, turn right onto Ewingville Road and continue to the traffic light, turn left at light onto Pennington Road (Rt. 31). The college is on the left about .4 mile from the light.

From Pennsylvania:

Follow I-95 North and cross the Scudder Falls Bridge to Rt. 31. Exit 4A. Take Rt. 31 South to the college.

From Asbury Park-Freehold area:

Follow Routes 33 West and then 571 to Penns Neck. Turn left onto Route 1 South and follow from * above.

From Northwest New Jersey:

Follow Rt. 202 until it intersects Rt. 31 at Flemington. Continue along Rt. 31 until you reach the college. This is about .4 mile past the traffic light at Ewingville.

From South Jersey:

At the Whitehorse Circle on Route 206, take Route 533 (Whitehorse-Mercerville Road) for 1.4 miles to Kuser Road. At this intersection, turn left onto Kuser Road and proceed .6 mile to 295. From this point travel 8.7 miles to the Federal City Road until the stop sign, turn right onto Ewingville Road and continue to the traffic light, turn left at light onto Pennington Road (Rt. 31). The college is on the left about .4 mile from the light.
