Regional Business: East Coast Convention donated two cases of basic texts to the Philadelphia Region to be distributed to prisons. The regional H & I Subcommittee would like to know how many each area would like to have for their prison commitments

Report: We opened with the Serenity Prayer. We will miss the commitment at 39A due to the panel leader is not showing up tonight and Max will call the facility and let them know and will fulfill the commitment for now on. Jeff will be stepping down from VA 39B soon. He will be training Walt to step into the commitment. All is well with other commitments. We have 2 new people to start observing H & I commitments. We talked about planning our learning day. We have all the speakers and chari people lined. We discussed who is bringing what the food, and once again our learning day is Saturday August 10th from 12pm to 5:30pm at the Williamson Masonic Lodge. It's at 210 Manor Avenue, Downingtown Pa, 19335. We still need Philly Regional Meeting lists and ask the area for assistance on what we should do. Lit order came to $150.60. We closed with the Serenity Prayer.

Policy Report

Attendance: Mike S., Tom P., Heather C., Bill G.

Report: The policy subcommittee discussed last month's alternative "GSR Only" ASC and if there were any permanent changes, if and how it would affect Policy. We determined it is too early to even make assumptions.

We also briefly discussed if there were any obvious changes in regards to the coming New Service Structure. Again, not enough information to speculate about anything.

Any issues or concerns with Policy, please don't hesitate to ask or discuss it with Ollie B.(chair) or me, Mike S.(co-chair) We are more than happy to be in service to the needs of our area and its members to fulfill its primary purpose.
