ARTICLE I:
BACKGROUND, PURPOSE, AND PARTIES OF THE TRUST

SECTION 1: BACKGROUND OF THE TRUST

Early in Narcotics Anonymous history, little was thought about the generation, use, or need for an Intellectual Property Trust document. Literature was written by addicts who gathered together to write, filling the void of material that concerned itself with recovery from the disease of addiction. The "little white book," informational pamphlets, Basic Text, newsletters, etc., were developed, written, edited, printed, and copied by members and groups of members. In the spirit of anonymity, no one person or group of persons was given credit as author. Early copyright registration was done under "C.A.R.E.N.A.," a pseudonymous (fictional) publishing agent. Many N.A. groups distributed these materials regularly, and often copied as many as possible to give to their members.

In 1971, at the 1st World Convention of Narcotics Anonymous, held November 5, 1971, in La Mirada, California, USA, the Fellowship members voted to establish the World Service Office. The WSO, Inc. was designed to serve as a central Fellowship contact point, an N.A. information clearinghouse, and publishing agency (business office or division with specific functions directed to it by the Fellowship). Since that time, the WSO, Inc. has been publisher of N.A. literature, holding the Fellowship's intellectual property as a fiduciary body (designee who holds something in trust for another; valuable only because of public confidence and support).

The WSO's function as publisher was first described in "The N.A. Tree" (1975): "Another major function of WSO, Inc. is the compilation, preparation, publication and distribution of literature...WSO is also responsible for the printing, warehousing, and distribution of all literature...", and is now described in the most recent edition of "A Temporary Working Guide to our Service Structure," as follows: "[A] major function of WSO is the publication and distribution of literature...WSO is also responsible for the printing, warehousing, and distribution of all existing literature."

During the years between 1978 and 1982, Narcotics Anonymous began the process of self-definition and maturity that would allow our Fellowship to become a significant worldwide force for recovery from addiction. A relatively small group of people, ordinary recovering addicts, developed our fellowship's first significant item of property - our Basic Text, the book entitled "Narcotics Anonymous." This collection of N.A. members worked as part of the Literature sub-committee of the WSC. The four major writing/editing literature conferences were located both centrally and at geographical extremes across the United States so that the maximum number of N.A. members could attend and participate.

Every N.A. member was encouraged to help write our book and was the opportunity to do so. The committee eventually numbered in the hundreds of active participating members. Each had a role and a voice in the content of our Basic Text. During this time, these members and the Fellowship of which they were representative, developed a trust bond with the service structure; that the results of their work would be used in the same spirit and manner in which it was developed. This is the basis and foundation of the Literature Trust Document.

Until the early 1980's, the sale of literature generated very little money. One of the questions that was asked from members upon hearing of efforts to produce our Basic Text was, "What's going to happen to the money?" The understanding was that the Basic Text would be made and sold as inexpensively as possible, and that the original price of the book would be lowered at a later date (this never happened).

In 1982, the WSO registered the copyright to the Basic Text, such specific trust to be administered in accordance with the direction of the WSC as given at its annual meeting of May 5-9, 1982. In 1988, the WSC approved guidelines for the WSC Literature Committee which read, in part: "After the World Literature Committee has completed its work on a piece of literature, it is turned over to the World Service Office for production and distribution. Production involves copyright registration...Literature is then sold through WSO."

Publish: "To issue (a printed work, etc) to the public, as for sale. b) to issue the written work or works of (a particular author)." Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, 1988.

Print: "To perform or cause to be performed all processes connected with the printing of (a book, etc), as typesetting, presswork, etc."

SCHEDULE A TWELVE STEPS AND TWELVE TRADITIONS, AS ADAPTED FOR USE BY THE FELLOWSHIP OF NARCOTICS ANONYMOUS

License to adapt the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions for use by the Fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous granted by Alcoholic Anonymous World Services, Inc.

TWELVE STEPS

1. We admitted that we were powerless over our addiction, that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. We came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. We made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. We made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. We admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. We were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. We humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. We made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. We made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. We continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.
11. We sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual awakening as a result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to addicts, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

TWELVE TRADITIONS

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends on N.A. unity.
2. For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority--a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop using.
4. Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or N.A. as a whole.
5. Each group has but one primary purpose--to carry the message to the addict who still suffers.
6. An N.A. group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the N.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property, or prestige divert us from our primary purpose.
7. Every N.A. group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
