

Vogel To Participate In Narcotics Forum

Dr. Victor H. Vogel, medical officer in charge of the United States Public Health Service hospital here, will be one of the speakers on a forum on "Our Youth and Narcotics" at New York City Tuesday.

The forum is sponsored by the committee on the domestic relations court of the New York bar association.

Other speakers on the panel will be Thomas F. Murphy, New York police commissioner, and Harold F. Strong, chairman of the group on correctional and allied services for the New York City Welfare Council and executive director of Children's Village.
