Ex-Heroin User Feted On 9th Year Without It

Mrs. Rae Lopez was given a party and birthday cake yesterday to mark an impor- tant anniversary—her ninth year without heroin.

"One hundred, friends and twenty-five former narcotics users crowded into the head- quarters of Narcotics Anony- mous, at 219 Seventh Avenue, to congratulate her. Barney Ross, the former boxing champion and former nar- cotics addict, was there. So was the city's Commissioner of correction, Anna M. Kross.

Narcotics Anonymous, which applies the same method of group help as Alcoholics Anonymous, was founded in 1950 by the late Daniel L. Carlsen, who had been an ad- dict for twenty-five years. It was Mr. Carlsen who helped Mrs. Lopez and dozens of others before his death in 1956.

KENNEDY CRITICIZES G. O. P. FARM POLICY

MARSHFIELD, Wis., Nov. 12 (AP)—Senator John F. Ken- nedy of Massachusetts carried his pre-Presidential campaign tour into Wisconsin's dairyland today with more criticism of the Administration farm program and a call for some original Democratic thinking on the sub- ject.
