Dear Jim:

I'm sending baskets of love & best wishes to you & yours. I wish I could afford to call you everytime I think about you. So many exciting things are happening.

Here are the answers to your questions:

1) I am attempting to write some articles about my personal experiences with clean & how I deal with these things. A package of review material arrived & was reviewed as per criteria for publication. I have thoroughly enjoyed reading the copies I have received.
