The first thing I think of when I ~~think~~ read the first tradition is the opening paragraph in the white "as long as the ties that bind us together are stronger than those that will tear us apart all will be well. ~~In writing this~~ humility in the most important sense Not a single one of us could be recovered if it there was no N.A. neither could we stay sober without meetings or the fellowships.

For this reason we must
