

5) Each group has but one primary purpose - to ^① carry the message to the addict ~~that~~ who still suffers.

All traditions are important, but I feel this one is especially important, because when I was out there and really hurting I knew nothing of NA or had anyone there reaching out with some